1. Policy

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH complies with the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration and Division of Workers Compensation regulations regarding drug and/or alcohol testing of employees. This policy is implemented pursuant to the drug-free workplace program requirements under Florida Statute 440.102 and Administrative Rule 59A-24 of the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration. Before an offer of employment is made, an applicant will be informed of THE COMPANY’S drug-free workplace policy and have any questions answered. Employees and applicants may be tested for any of the reasons or conditions set forth in sections 2 through 5 of this policy. MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH will not tolerate any of the following behaviors by its employees:

- Use of illegal drugs.
- Abuse of legal drugs (prescription or over the counter).
- Abuse of alcohol
- Possession of illegal drugs or prescription drugs obtained illegally.

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH uses laboratory-based urine testing or approved instant test kits to screen employees for drug abuse and laboratory-based blood test in the case of alcohol testing. All laboratories are DOT approved and certified by ACHA. (Agency for Health Care Administration). Refusal to submit to testing OR tampering with a specimen (which includes providing a counterfeit specimen) violates THE COMPANY’S Drug Free Workplace Safety Policy and will be treated as a positive confirmed test.

Employees who are administrated by a separate US Department of Transportation (DOT) Commercial Drivers Drug-Free Workplace and Safety policy will be held to the standards of that policy. There are several differences in the 2 policies including which forms, which labs and what type of alcohol testing are allowed to be performed. The US DOT policy will always take precedence over this State of Florida Policy if it is applicable. (See separate US DOT policy.)

The following substances may be tested for:

Drug	EMIT (screen)		GC/MS (final)
The following constitutes a 5 panel Test
Marijuana (Delta-9 Carboxy-THC)	50	ng/mL	15	ng/mL
Cocaine (Benzoylecgonine)	150	ng/mL	100	ng/mL
Opiates (Morphine/Codeine)	2000	ng/mL	2000	ng/mL
Heroin (6-Acetylmorphine)	10	ng/mL	10	ng/mL
Phencyclidine (PCP)	25	ng/mL	25	ng/mL
Amphetamine & Methamphetamine	500	ng/mL	250	ng/mL
MDMA (Ecstasy)	500	ng/mL	250	ng/mL
Substances listed above, in addition to the following, constitutes an 8 panel test

Barbiturates	300	ng/mL	150	ng/mL
Benzodiazepines	300	ng/mL	150	ng/mL
Methaqualone	300	ng/mL	150	ng/mL
Substances listed above, in addition to the following, constitutes a 10 panel test
Propoxyphene	300	ng/mL	150	ng/mL
Methadone	300	ng/mL	150	ng/mL

The levels and substances may change in accordance with State of Florida requirements.

2. Random Testing

The state of Florida does not require random drug testing of employees. However, this company reserves the right to institute a random drug testing program at any time, by giving a 30-day notice to its current employees. No notice is required to be given to new or prospective employees. The random program will be administrated by a non-biased 3rd party. Frequency of testing and other testing protocol will be stated when and if notice of random drug testing program is given.

3. Post-Accident Testing

Drug and alcohol testing must be performed after every reportable accident within a reasonable amount of time, but not later than thirty-two (32) hours after the accident. Alcohol testing may be conducted but must be within eight (8) hours of an accident. Testing may include up to a 10 Panel urine drug test and blood alcohol test.

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH has the right to contact any medical facility treating the employee to ask that a drug and alcohol test be performed. MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH also has the right to obtain from the employees' medical records, the result of any drug and/or alcohol test. If an employee refuses to allow the test or tries to stop the release of the specimen or any reports, it will result in the immediate medical disqualification and possible termination of employment.

An employee who fails to report an accident to MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH, and who fails to comply with the post-accident requirements of this policy, will be presumed to be positive for the presence of a controlled substance resulting in the medical disqualification for employment with MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH.

An employee who tests positive in a confirmed drug test may forfeit his or her eligibility for all workers' compensation medical and indemnity benefits.

4. Reasonable Cause Testing

Employees may be tested for drugs and/or alcohol when MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH feels that there is a reasonable cause due to the conduct of the employee. A supervisor who sees suspicious behavior may request a drug and/or alcohol test or ask for a second opinion from another supervisor. All actions will be documented by the supervisor and provided to the Medical Review Officer (MRO) if asked. If two or more supervisors witness the conduct, both must submit independent written documentation.

Supervisors will remove the employee from work and ask the employee to submit to a drug and/or alcohol test.

The employee is responsible for donation of the urine specimen. Refusal may result in immediate medical disqualification of the employee and may result in loss of employment.

The supervisor will take the employee to a collection site and tell the collection personnel that the employee is to have a drug and/or alcohol test based upon reasonable suspicion.

The supervisor will explain to their employee that they will be notified of the results, after the results have been reviewed by the Medical Review Officer. Until the results of the test have been reported, the employee will be suspended, and is not to return to work until having been told by MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH the outcome of the investigation. MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH will then instruct the donor that transportation will be available if desired to any reasonable destination that the employee selects.

5. Return-to-Duty and Follow-up Testing

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH may provide the option to employees who have tested positive, to complete a substance abuse program as provided by an Employee Assistance Program professional OR Substance Abuse Professional. The employee must complete and provide all testing that the EAP or SAP recommends, as well as an initial return-to-duty negative drug screen. This option is at the discretion of THE COMPANY, and the employee may be terminated at any time- for any reason.

If the employee in the course of employment enters an employee assistance program for drug/alcohol-related problems, or a drug/alcohol rehabilitation program, THE COMPANY requires the employee to submit to a drug/alcohol test as a follow-up to the program, unless the employee voluntarily entered the program. In those cases, THE COMPANY has the option to not require follow-up testing. If follow-up testing is required, it must be conducted at least once a year for a 2-year period after completion of the program. Advance notice of a follow-up testing date must not be given to the employee to be tested.

6. Grounds for Termination or Discipline

a. The actions that McGregor Baptist Church may take against an employee or job applicant on the basis of a positive confirmed drug/alcohol test result.

b. Positive Test - Denial of Florida workers' compensation benefits. Upon a positive confirmed drug/alcohol test result THE COMPANY will deny an employee workers' compensation medical or indemnity benefits under Florida Chapter 440.

c. Refusal of Test - Denial of Florida workers' compensation benefits. If an injured employee refuses to submit to a drug/alcohol test, the employee forfeits eligibility for Florida workers' compensation medical and indemnity benefits.

d. Positive Test - Termination of employment. Upon a positive confirmed drug/alcohol test result, THE COMPANY may terminate the employee's employment.

7. Medical Review Officer

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH has retained the services of an independent Medical Review Officer (MRO), to ensure that every employee who is subject to testing is treated in a fair and impartial manner. An MRO is a physician, (MD or DO) licensed to practice medicine, with knowledge of substance abuse testing. It is the responsibility of the MRO to review test results of each drug test performed by the laboratory, prior to the results being made available to the designated MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH official.

If an employee tests positive for any of the drugs, at, or above the specified cut-off levels, the employee will have the opportunity to discuss the results with the MRO. Upon receipt of a positive test result the MRO will:

- Contact or attempt to contact the employee, either by telephone or in person.
- Inform the employee of the positive result and will attempt to determine a medical explanation for the finding.
- Request information on recent medical history, and on medication taken within 30 days prior to the drug screen.
- Ask the employee to provide evidence, (including prescription number, pharmacy name and telephone number, as well as the prescribing physicians' name) if the MRO finds reasonable support for the positive results.
- Issue a negative test result to MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH, if the employee provides acceptable evidence within the time limits requested by the MRO.
- Report a positive test result to MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH, if no acceptable or legitimate evidence of a medical explanation is found. This will result in the medical disqualification of the employee.
- Will issue a positive test finding, if the employee fails to contact the MRO within 24 hours of having been instructed to do so, resulting in the medical disqualification of the employee. The employee may still provide medical evidence, and the MRO may still overturn the test results afterwards. If the MRO overturns the test MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH may choose to re-instate the employee to their former position or an alternate position.

The MRO for MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH is: Coastal MRO, Inc. 6202 Presidential Court, Suite A- Fort Myers, Florida 33919. The telephone number is: (800) 533-8107 or (239) 481-3611.

8. Medication Reporting Procedure

An employee or job applicant may confidentially report the use of prescription or nonprescription medications to a medical review officer, both before and after a drug/alcohol test, by contacting the medical review officer directly; THE COMPANY will provide the contact information, if different than in Paragraph 7 above.

Consultation Rights

Employees and job applicants may consult with a medical review officer for technical information, regarding prescription or nonprescription medication.

9. Reporting and Custodianship of Test Results

The MRO will report on the final outcome of test results. The test will be reported as "negative", "positive" or "rejected". The MRO may report a result using a predefined method which has been agreed upon.

In order to protect the confidentiality of the results, all records of drug tests will be stored separately from the employee's general personnel file. These records will be kept under secure conditions at all times. Only those COMPANY officials with special authorization may view these reports or have access to the files. The information in these files will be used only to administer this policy, and to provide to certifying agencies as required under federal law. No other use will be made of this information. If at any time, or, for any reason, the management becomes aware of any breach of confidentiality of these records by any person, that person who violated the confidentiality will be terminated without recourse.

Any employee tested under the provisions of this policy has the right to view and/or receive a copy of the final test results. The employee must request this in writing from the designated COMPANY official.

10. Rehabilitation

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH does not provide a drug rehabilitation program. Any employee voluntarily admitting to a drug problem, and requesting assistance in overcoming the problem, will be put in contact with an appropriate COMPANY official. The official will provide the employee with appropriate community resources. MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH will not bear any of the expenses incurred by the employee in the rehabilitation process.

In those cases where an employee successfully completes a rehabilitation program, and MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH elects to retain them, MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH has the right to perform random urine drug screens for a period not to exceed sixty months. Any refusal to undergo testing will result in immediate termination.

SAMHSA's National Helpline (also known as the Treatment Referral Routing Service) is a confidential, free, 24-hour-a-day, 365-day-a-year, information service, in English and Spanish, for individuals and family members facing mental health and/or substance use disorders. This service provides referrals to local treatment facilities, support groups, and community-based organizations. Callers can also order free publications and other information. Call 1-800-662-HELP (4357) or visit the online treatment locators.

11. How to Challenge a Positive Test

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH will inform an employee of a positive confirmed drug or alcohol test within five working days after receiving the test result. The employee can submit information to MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH explaining or contesting the positive test result. The employee should explain why the result is incorrect, reasons for a positive test result, or may contest the positive test result.

At the employee's request, and at the employee's expense, the MRO may request a reanalysis of the original specimen. Such retest shall be performed only at a Florida ACHA certified laboratory, shall be by GC/MS confirmation methodology only, and shall not be subject to any cut-off levels. If there is a scientifically detectable presence of the drug(s) or metabolite(s), the MRO shall report the test result as "positive". If the reanalysis fails to confirm the presence of the drug(s) or metabolite(s), the MRO shall report the test as "negative".

MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH will determine whether the employee's explanation or challenge is satisfactory. Within fifteen days of receiving the explanation or challenge, MCGREGOR BAPTIST CHURCH will provide in writing, whether the employee's explanation is satisfactory or unsatisfactory, along with the report of the positive test results. The following will remain confidential: The employee's explanation or challenge, THE COMPANY's response, and the employee's positive test results.

If THE COMPANY's findings are unsatisfactory to the employee, the employee must challenge the test results in a court of competent jurisdiction. The employee must notify the laboratory and the Medical Review Officer of the challenge to the test results. The laboratory must retain the urine or blood sample until the case is settled.

Know Your Rights: Workplace Discrimination is Illegal

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) enforces Federal laws that protect you from discrimination in employment. If you believe you've been discriminated against at work or in applying for a job, the EEOC may be able to help.

Who is Protected?

- Employees (current and former), including managers and temporary employees
- Job applicants
- Union members and applicants for membership in a union

What Organizations are Covered?

- Most private employers
- State and local governments (as employers)
- Educational institutions (as employers)
- Unions
- Staffing agencies

What Types of Employment Discrimination are Illegal?

Under the EEOC's laws, an employer may not discriminate against you, regardless of your immigration status, on the bases of:

- Race
- Color
- Religion
- National origin
- Sex (including pregnancy and related conditions, sexual orientation, or gender identity)
- Age (40 and older)
- Disability
- Genetic information (including employer requests for, or purchase, use, or disclosure of genetic tests, genetic services, or family medical history)
- Retaliation for filing a charge, reasonably opposing discrimination, or participating in a discrimination lawsuit, investigation, or proceeding.

What Employment Practices can be Challenged as Discriminatory?

All aspects of employment, including:

- Discharge, firing, or lay-off
- Harassment (including unwelcome verbal or physical conduct)
- Hiring or promotion
- Assignment
- Pay (unequal wages or compensation)
- Failure to provide reasonable accommodation for a disability or a sincerely-held religious belief, observance or practice
- Benefits
- Job training
- Classification
- Referral
- Obtaining or disclosing genetic information of employees
- Requesting or disclosing medical information of employees
- Conduct that might reasonably discourage someone from opposing discrimination, filing a charge, or participating in an investigation or proceeding.

What can You Do if You Believe Discrimination has Occurred?

Contact the EEOC promptly if you suspect discrimination. Do not delay, because there are strict time limits for filing a charge of discrimination (180 or 300 days, depending on where you live/work). You can reach the EEOC in any of the following ways:

Submit an inquiry through the EEOC's public portal:

EMPLOYERS HOLDING FEDERAL CONTRACTS OR SUBCONTRACTS

The Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) enforces the nondiscrimination and affirmative action commitments of companies doing business with the Federal Government. If you are applying for a job with, or are an employee of, a company with a Federal contract or subcontract, you are protected under Federal law from discrimination on the following bases:

Race, Color, Religion, Sex, Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, National Origin

Executive Order 11246, as amended, prohibits employment discrimination by Federal contractors based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or national origin, and requires affirmative action to ensure equality of opportunity in all aspects of employment.

Asking About, Disclosing, or Discussing Pay

Executive Order 11246, as amended, protects applicants and employees of Federal contractors from discrimination based on inquiring about, disclosing, or discussing their compensation or the compensation of other applicants or employees.

Disability

Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, protects qualified individuals with disabilities from discrimination in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment by Federal contractors. Disability discrimination includes not making reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, barring undue hardship to the employer. Section 503 also requires that Federal contractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified individuals with disabilities at all levels of employment, including the executive level.

Protected Veteran Status

The Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended, 38 U.S.C. 4212, prohibits employment discrimination against, and requires affirmative action to recruit, employ, and advance in employment, disabled veterans, recently separated veterans (i.e., within three years of discharge or release from active duty), active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans, or Armed Forces service medal veterans.

Retaliation

Retaliation is prohibited against a person who files a complaint of discrimination, participates in an OFCCP proceeding, or otherwise opposes discrimination by Federal contractors under these Federal laws.

Any person who believes a contractor has violated its nondiscrimination or affirmative action obligations under OFCCP's authorities should contact immediately:

OFCCP may also be contacted by submitting a question online to OFCCP's Help Desk at <https://ofccphelpdesk.dol.gov/s/>, or by calling an OFCCP regional or district office, listed in most telephone directories under U.S. Government, Department of Labor and on OFCCP's "Contact Us" webpage at <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ofccp/contact>.

PROGRAMS OR ACTIVITIES RECEIVING FEDERAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Race, Color, National Origin, Sex

In addition to the protections of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Employment discrimination is covered by Title VI if the primary objective of the financial assistance is provision of employment, or where employment discrimination causes or may cause discrimination in providing services under such programs. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of sex in educational programs or activities which receive Federal financial assistance.

Individuals with Disabilities

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of disability in any program or activity which receives Federal financial assistance. Discrimination is prohibited in all aspects of employment against persons with disabilities who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of the job.

If you believe you have been discriminated against in a program of any institution which receives Federal financial assistance, you should immediately contact the Federal agency providing such assistance.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Eligible employees who work for a covered employer can take up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a 12-month period for the following reasons:

- The birth of a child or placement of a child for adoption or foster care;
- To bond with a child (leave must be taken within 1 year of the child’s birth or placement);
- To care for the employee’s spouse, child, or parent who has a qualifying serious health condition;
- For the employee’s own qualifying serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job;
- For qualifying exigencies related to the foreign deployment of a military member who is the employee’s spouse, child, or parent.

An eligible employee who is a covered servicemember’s spouse, child, parent, or next of kin may also take up to 26 weeks of FMLA leave in a single 12-month period to care for the servicemember with a serious injury or illness.

An employee does not need to use leave in one block. When it is medically necessary or otherwise permitted, employees may take leave intermittently or on a reduced schedule.

Employees may choose, or an employer may require, use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. If an employee substitutes accrued paid leave for FMLA leave, the employee must comply with the employer’s normal paid leave policies.

While employees are on FMLA leave, employers must continue health insurance coverage as if the employees were not on leave.

Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to the same job or one nearly identical to it with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms and conditions.

An employer may not interfere with an individual’s FMLA rights or retaliate against someone for using or trying to use FMLA leave, opposing any practice made unlawful by the FMLA, or being involved in any proceeding under or related to the FMLA.

BENEFITS & PROTECTIONS

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

An employee who works for a covered employer must meet three criteria in order to be eligible for FMLA leave. The employee must:

- Have worked for the employer for at least 12 months;
- Have at least 1,250 hours of service in the 12 months before taking leave;* and
- Work at a location where the employer has at least 50 employees within 75 miles of the employee’s worksite.

*Special “hours of service” requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

REQUESTING LEAVE

Generally, employees must give 30-days’ advance notice of the need for FMLA leave. If it is not possible to give 30-days’ notice, an employee must notify the employer as soon as possible and, generally, follow the employer’s usual procedures.

Employees do not have to share a medical diagnosis, but must provide enough information to the employer so it can determine if the leave qualifies for FMLA protection. Sufficient information could include informing an employer that the employee is or will be unable to perform his or her job functions, that a family member cannot perform daily activities, or that hospitalization or continuing medical treatment is necessary. Employees must inform the employer if the need for leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified.

Employers can require a certification or periodic recertification supporting the need for leave. If the employer determines that the certification is incomplete, it must provide a written notice indicating what additional information is required.

Once an employer becomes aware that an employee’s need for leave is for a reason that may qualify under the FMLA, the employer must notify the employee if he or she is eligible for FMLA leave and, if eligible, must also provide a notice of rights and responsibilities under the FMLA. If the employee is not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for ineligibility.

Employers must notify its employees if leave will be designated as FMLA leave, and if so, how much leave will be designated as FMLA leave.

Employees may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division, or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

The FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination or supersede any state or local law or collective bargaining agreement that provides greater family or medical leave rights.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

EMPLOYEE POLYGRAPH PROTECTION ACT

The Employee Polygraph Protection Act prohibits most private employers from using lie detector tests either for pre-employment screening or during the course of employment.

PROHIBITIONS	Employers are generally prohibited from requiring or requesting any employee or job applicant to take a lie detector test, and from discharging, disciplining, or discriminating against an employee or prospective employee for refusing to take a test or for exercising other rights under the Act.
EXEMPTIONS	Federal, State and local governments are not affected by the law. Also, the law does not apply to tests given by the Federal Government to certain private individuals engaged in national security-related activities. The Act permits polygraph (a kind of lie detector) tests to be administered in the private sector, subject to restrictions, to certain prospective employees of security service firms (armored car, alarm, and guard), and of pharmaceutical manufacturers, distributors and dispensers. The Act also permits polygraph testing, subject to restrictions, of certain employees of private firms who are reasonably suspected of involvement in a workplace incident (theft, embezzlement, etc.) that resulted in economic loss to the employer. The law does not preempt any provision of any State or local law or any collective bargaining agreement which is more restrictive with respect to lie detector tests.
EXAMINEE RIGHTS	Where polygraph tests are permitted, they are subject to numerous strict standards concerning the conduct and length of the test. Examinees have a number of specific rights, including the right to a written notice before testing, the right to refuse or discontinue a test, and the right not to have test results disclosed to unauthorized persons.
ENFORCEMENT	The Secretary of Labor may bring court actions to restrain violations and assess civil penalties against violators. Employees or job applicants may also bring their own court actions.

THE LAW REQUIRES EMPLOYERS TO DISPLAY THIS POSTER WHERE EMPLOYEES AND JOB APPLICANTS CAN READILY SEE IT.
